NOTICE OF COMPLIANCE WITH COURT'S ORDER

The Secretary has complied with the Court's Order on limited discovery (ECF Doc. No. 23), requiring the Secretary to "provide Defendant with copies of the documents it intends to present or to rely upon at the hearing and to identify any witnesses that may testify at the hearing." As noted in the Court's prior Order (ECF. Doc. No. 13), "additional evidence at the hearing is neither required nor expected. The Secretary's motion was supported by an index of evidence as provided by this Court's rules. The Court found that evidence sufficient to warrant a temporary restraining order, and since the standard for a preliminary injunction is the same, the Secretary need not necessarily adduce additional evidence to meet his burden." (internal citations omitted).

To that end, the Secretary does not plan, at this time, to introduce any additional documents as evidence at the December 7, 2022 preliminary injunction hearing, but reserves the right to do so in rebuttal. Additionally, the Secretary may call Shannon Rebolledo and Nancy Alcantara as witnesses if needed.
